

Top Trends from Spring 2015 Bridal Fashion Week – Part two

Brides-to-be, on our BLOG today further advice to help you find the perfect wedding gown. Once more, we bring you the top trends from the Spring 2015 Bridal Fashion Week.

Be sparkling in a bling bridal gown

Shiny wedding gowns always have a special place in designers' collections. If you decide to wear one for your big day you can be sure that not just you but even you dress itself will sparkle! Get inspiration from our top three favorite bling bridal gowns designed by Marchesa, Caronina Herrera and Jenny Packham. Lots of inspiration too from Ines Di Santo's breath-taking back.

Be original in a special neckline gown

Strapless and sweetheart necklines are gorgeous but if you are looking for something a little more unique and on trend for your wedding day? Necklines dip and soar to new extremes this season, from plunging V-necks to high-neck. Four of our favourite necklines from the runway are designed by Ines de Santo, Rivini, Oscar de la Renta and Steven Brinbaum.

Be attractive in an open-back gown

A perfect way to bring sensuality to your wedding look! Whether you choose a pearl or lace back or a completely open-back dress you will be stunning. Highlight your demure naked back gown by choosing a lovely and discreet bun for your hairstyle. Three of our favourite open-back wedding gowns are designed by Romona Keveza, Stella York and Lela Rose.

Be outstanding in a 3D effect wedding gown

Choose a 3D effect gown to stand out from the brides' crowd for your wedding day! Bridal designers are adding dazzling dimension to their creations with fluttering petals, whimsical embellishment, and floral appliques. The kind of dress that makes guests' eyes shine when they see you walking up the aisle. Our top three favourite 3D effect dresses are designed by the Irish Designer Theia, Marchesa and Angel Sanchez.
